"Mukhtar Protocol" Canceled!

A Game-Changing Achievement: “Mukhtar Protocol” has been Canceled! Four years after we set out to abolish the problematic procedure by which property ownership was determined in East Jerusalem, the Mukhtar Protocol has been revoked. This strange, antiquated procedure was an open invitation to widespread fraud, resulting in the violation of proprietary rights of both Jewish and Arab owners. Read more here>>>

Active Agenda Items

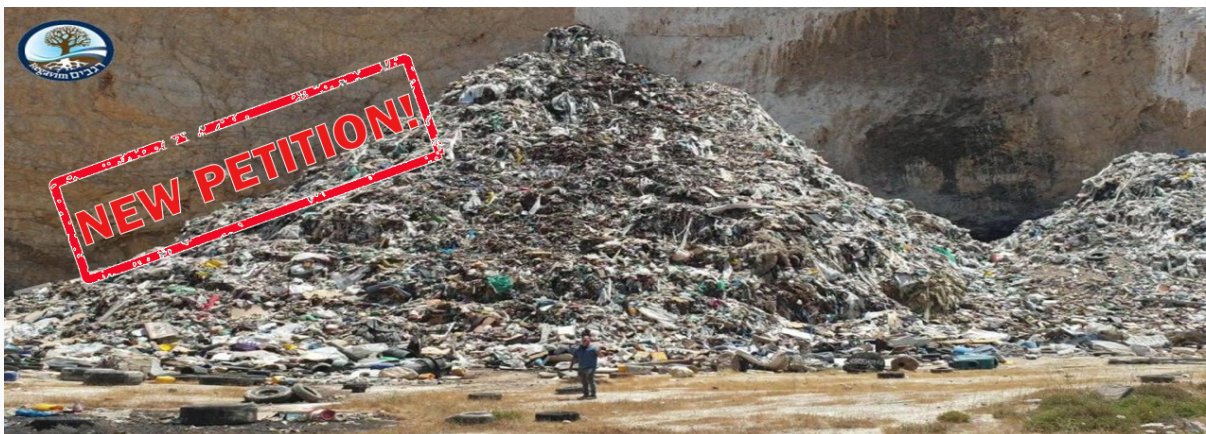

In a Knesset hearing we initiated together with MKs Amichai Chikli, Yoav Kisch, and Uriel Busso following incidents of police violence against law-abiding citizens, we heard numerous testimonies about false arrests, violence, and unjustified confiscation of personal, licensed firearms. We joined MK Merav Ben Ari's call to appoint a special advisor to investigate and prosecute claims of violence against civilians, and we demanded a thorough investigation of reported incidents of police officers using racial epithets and other forms of bias and misconduct. Regavim filed a new High Court of Justice petition against the Civil Administration's failure to stop the massive illegal construction spree on Moshe Zar's property in Karnei Shomron. The Civil Administration is invoking the usual excuse of "enforcement priorities" while the takeover of privately-owned Jewish land continues.

High Court to Decide: Who Will Pay for the Cleanup?
After a stream of correspondence and complaints by Regavim, the Civil Administration cleared an illegal garbage dump in the Binyamin region. However, the dumping site was cleared and rehabilitated at the expense of the

Israeli taxpayer, and not a single one of the criminals arrested for dumping the trash were charged or tried – even when they resumed dumping at the very same spot only weeks later. Read more on our website >>

Five-year legal battle comes to an end: invasion of private lands reversed! Thanks to Regavim's activism, the National Enforcement Unit for Planning and Construction tore down the illegal complex built by the Abu Asa clan in Gedera. Click here to read more on our Facebook page.

After months of illegal construction (including enormous villas) at the Hasmonean Palaces archaeological site near Jericho, significant enforcement action was carried out, and some of the structures were torn down. We'll continue to monitor the situation on the ground, and to demand that the authorities to carry out full and complete enforcement without delay.

Israel's Channel 14 hosted Regavim for a closer look at how Bedouin squatters' illegal takeover of state and private land, coupled with unbridled, blatant incitement to commit acts of terrorism, are undermining governance and Israeli sovereignty in the Negev. Click here to watch \(Hebrew\) >>>

An Israeli Bedouin business owner from Ar'ara in the Negev turned to Regavim for help. He was threatened and attacked repeatedly over the course of a decade – for the "crime" of having been awarded a public tender issued by the Israel Land Authority. Criminals who claim to own the land - despite the fact that it is registered in full as State property – are keeping him from using his land, causing him tremendous losses. ## West Bank emergency regulations: A poor stand-in for national policy - opinion

By NAOMI LINDER KAHN Published: JUNE 13, 2022 21:09

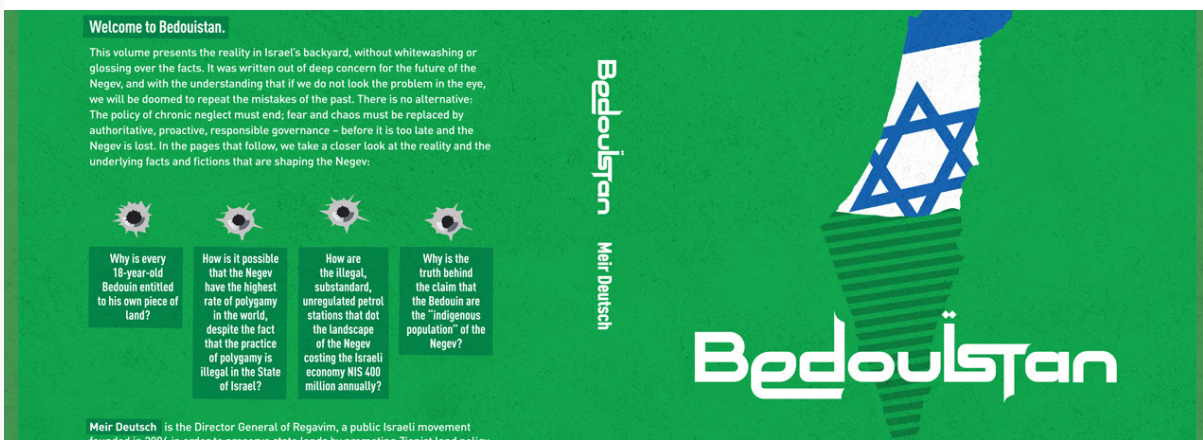

As the issue of Emergency Regulations in Judea and Samaria was discussed in the Knesset, the government, and the media, Regavim reminded everyone that the real issue is the decades-long failure of Israeli governments to formulate policy for Judea and Samaria. Read the op-ed published in the Jerusalem Post by Regavim's Naomi Kahn >>

At Regavim's annual convention last month, we honored Professor Arnon Soffer with a Lifetime Achievement Award. As Professor Soffer was unable to attend the convention in Jerusalem, we traveled to his home Haifa to present the award in person.

"Bedouistan" in English: Regavim has been studying, documenting and recommending solutions for the Negev for over 16 years. Our Director General, Meir Deutsch, has now published a book that offers an insider's view of the situation on the ground. Order your copy now!

Lectures & Field Tours

This month we continued to educate and engage Members of Knesset, journalists, pre-military academies, and other groups. We held field tours in the Negev and in Judea and Samaria with leading Israeli journalists, with the pre-military academies of Rabin, Tavor, HaShachar, HaNegev, with MKs Galit Distel (Likud) and Yasmin Sacks Fridman (Yesh Atid), and others. We also gave presentations to the public in Ma'ale Adumim, Elazar, and Kfar Etzion.
