President Biden's visit to Israel

Jerusalem and the Jordan Valley are Israel's most vital existential interests

They're not for sale.

Public campaign to protect Israel's sovereignty: Regavim joined forces with other Zionist organizations to launch a campaign ahead of US President Biden's visit in Israel. Our media blitz and public awareness efforts aimed to prevent the Israeli government from making concessions that endanger Israel's security and sovereignty. Read more on our website here >>

Ahead of President Biden's visit, Defense Minister Benny Gantz announced his approval of 6 masterplans for Palestinian settlement expansion in Area C, the portion of Judea and Samaria under full Israeli jurisdiction. The plans include the “legalization” of hundreds of illegal structures and the expansion of Palestinian towns by thousands of dunams. Listen to a radio interview we did with Kan English here >>

Active Agenda Items

A New Front in The War of Attrition? In recent weeks, a delegation of senior Canadian military personnel has been patrolling in uniform in Area C, visiting illegal structures and other forms of Palestinian takeover of areas under Israeli jurisdiction – from the South Hebron Hills region through Gush Etzion. The story, which is still developing, was covered in a number of media outlets, including World Israel News, Jewish Press, and The Jewish Voice. This is a whole new front in the “quiet war” for Area C, and Regavim will most certainly be on the front lines. Watch this space for updates!

THE JERUSALEM POST

Gantz warns settlers against illegal outpost construction

Selective enforcement: While the Civil Administration enforces the law against the Arab takeover of Area C “in accordance with established priorities,” Defense Minister Gantz is busy fighting the Jews. Regavim filed a High Court petition calling out the blatant disparity of enforcement. Read the letter sent to Gantz by Regavim’s Director-General, Meir Deutsch, or click here for media coverage of this issue.

New HCJ petition: Cancel immunity for illegal Palestinian construction! In a petitioned filed in the High Court of Justice (HCJ), Regavim has demanded correction of a Civil Administration procedures that automatically freeze enforcement action against thousands of illegal Palestinian structures, encouraging and facilitating the illegal Arab takeover of Area C. Read more >>

Freedom of Information petition: Our correspondence to the authorities requesting information about permits for off-season grazing - permits that are valid for years and sprawl over vast swathes of state land - was ignored, so we submitted a Freedom of Information petition to the HCJ, demanding full disclosure: How many permits are issued? To whom? What are the qualifying criteria, and precisely what land is involved? Who is responsible for monitoring and preventing permit violations? Read the full petition >>

Inter-ministerial Committee Convenes! After the inter-ministerial committee that monitors polygamy had not convened for around a-year-and-a-half, the Ministry of Justice agreed to our request to urgently invite the relevant authorities for a meeting. Partaking in the discussion were representatives from the Israel Police, the National Security Council, the Justice Ministry, Bituach Leumi (National Insurance Institute), and Regavim – as we're a participant in the inter-ministerial team. The committee is set to follow-up with another meeting in the near future.

Success! After we found out about garbage trucks that were dumping construction waste into an old quarry, we quickly approached the authorities, and the entrance to the quarry was blocked. Watch Mano Lazar, Regavim's Negev Field Coordinator, explain \(in Hebrew\) >>

Will Khan al Ahmar be forcibly evacuated? The 120-day extension allotted to the State by the High Court of Justice ran out, yet the State didn't issue any response detailing the time frame for the evacuation of the illegal outpost. Regavim has returned to the HCJ with a petition for a final judgement requiring the immediate evacuation of Khan al Ahmar. It's high time for the High Court to end this massive failure!

"Bedouistan" in English: Regavim has published a book that offers an insider's view of the situation in Israel's Wild South and proposes solutions for the Negev predicament. This past month, Regavim's Director-General, Meir Deutsch, wrote an op-ed (in Hebrew) about protection payments, and Attorney Boaz Arzi, Chief Counsel for Regavim's Legal Division, was on Kan television to respond to the Police Chief's claim that the situation on the ground is better than ever.

Lectures & Field Tours

We held a field tour for a group of foreign journalists from Media Central who are covering Israel-related affairs for media outlets in France, Britain, Germany, Sweden, Korea, Czech Republic, and more. We began the tour at a viewpoint in the Adumim Region, also known as E1, where Naomi Kahn of Regavim's International Division discussed the strategic importance of the area. We continued to Khan al Ahmar, and also spoke about President Biden's visit and its possible ramifications.

Following President Biden's visit and the announcement of the 6 masterplans, we met up with MK Amichai Chikli on Mount Gilo, on the outskirts of Jerusalem, and discussed the dangers of these plans. Watch the Facebook live from the field tour.
